July 2019 Highlights

Dear Pastor,

Church Picnic: On Saturday 13th, we had a church picnic with two other churches. It was a wonderful time of fun, food, and godly fellowship. There were at least 50 people at the picnic. We praise the Lord for a wonderful time of encouragement for these three church families.

Visitors: Of the two families, that visited one has been back every week. Praise God! In fact, a family friend from Brazil moved here and has begun attending the church at least until he has his own place. The other family that has not been back, nor have we been able to meet with them outside of the church setting.

Town Fair: Our town has an annual town fair with a Medieval theme due to the castle in the middle of town. Last year, the fair had a daily average of 50,000 people. This year, we are handing out 840 free water bottles with the gospel message on the side of the bottle. We decided to try this because last year Josiah handed out flyers to people at the fair. Sadly, most of the people threw the flyers on the ground or in the trash. A water bottle, though, is something that people will hold on to for a while. Our prayer is that as a result of many reading the gospel message on the bottle people would be saved. On Saturday August 3rd, we passed just over half of these bottles. Many people had a hard time believing that the bottles were free because it goes against the typical paradigm.
